Everyone who attends a Democratic precinct caucus matters. Thanks for participating in your precinct caucus meeting tonight. I ask for your vote for Salt Lake County Council.

It's already an exciting election year for Democrats — with our own Peter Corroon running for Utah governor. With your support I intend to be your next Salt Lake County councilwoman. I look forward to meeting with you at the Salt Lake County Democratic Convention on April 24.

“Holly will bring great energy and enthusiasm to the County Council and work to protect air quality, open space and human services.”

Joe Hatch, Chair, Salt Lake County Council
