

Sim Gill for Salt Lake County District Attorney

A New Day. A New D.A.

A career prosecutor and public servant, Sim has the experience, principles, leadership and ideas we need to restore the high standard of the Salt Lake County District Attorney's office.

Sim is currently the Chief City Prosecutor for Salt Lake City, the largest municipal prosecutor's office in the state of Utah. He has more than 15 years of prosecuting experience through the Salt Lake County District Attorney's office, Salt Lake City and Layton City. He has prosecuted in the areas of white collar crime, felony drunk driving, environmental crimes and the sexual exploitation for profit cases. Sim has also been involved in issues of therapeutic justice and alternatives to prosecution. He has been a leader in implementing innovative and creative programs like Utah's first Mental Health Court and the Family Justice Center in collaboration with the YWCA.

Sim is passionate about Salt Lake County and the people who live here. That's why he believes the mission of Salt Lake County's District Attorney's Office is to not just create safe communities, but do it the right way.

With integrity. Professional competence. Fairness. Vision. And a passionate commitment to provide a high standard of public service.

Sim's Mission:

- Return Integrity and Public Trust to the Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office
- Prosecute Criminals, Protect Families, Help Victims
- Save Tax Dollars by Making the District Attorney's Office and our Criminal Justice System More Efficient
